

The International Conference on Person of the Therapist

April 27 – 28, 2018 • Philadelphia, PA

DREXEL UNIVERSITY
Counseling and
Family Therapy
College of Nursing and Health Professions

The International Conference on Person of the Therapist is the first major professional meeting of its kind. The emphasis on the person of the therapist comes at a time when evidence-based treatments are elevated as best practice. At the same time, the world is divided strongly along the lines of race, religion, sexual orientation, class and gender, begging the question of how do we deal with the sameness of humankind yet the difference of experience and context.
